

Key questions:

Why do people holiday in volcanic regions?

Where are volcanoes located?

How are volcanoes formed?

What are the stages of a volcanic eruption?

Key vocabulary:

volcano	erupt	fossils
magma	tectonic plates	equator
crust	mantle	outer core inner core	dormant	active
Tropic of Cancer		Tropic of Capricorn

Science Vocabulary

igneous	sedimentary	metamorphic
magma	lava	sediment
permeable	impermeable	fossilisation
erosion	topsoil	subsoil
bedrock

Modern Europe
– Why do people holiday in Europe?

Learning events:

- Making model volcanoes
- Making large scale art (The Scream)

Cross-curricular links:

Maths: Number: Addition and subtraction, Number: Multiplication and Division

Science: Rocks

English: Non-chronological reports, scripts, newspaper articles

Geography: Modern Europe, Volcanoes

History: To explore and understand the development of tourism in some European countries.

Art: Edvard Munch – The Scream

DT: European pies.

Computing: E safety, Creating media – Stop frame animation